

Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : Deputy Services Officer

FROM : Acting Chief, Supply Division

SUBJECT: Monthly Report - March

DATE: 14 April 1949

25X1A6a

1. During the month of March, action was taken to effect the transfer of personnel and records of the Property Control Division into the Supply Division. Personnel transferred from the Property Control Division are presently assigned to the [REDACTED] Warehouse. With definite decisions arrived at during the past week, it is expected that the transformation of information from the property records and inventory records into one system will be accomplished within the next month.

2. A meeting of representatives from OSO and Supply Division will be held within the very near future to discuss changes in the procedures for handling shipments, both domestic and overseas.

3. The Management Office is expected to complete their study of the Supply Division on or about April 15th. During this period personnel of the Supply Division have spent considerable hours in discussing methods and procedures. Action has been initiated to prepare renewal letters on all leases and service contracts for the next fiscal year.
